

JOURNAL REFLECTION: YOU ARE THE ONLY YOU

You are the only you there ever was and ever will be. Who are you? Who do you dream of becoming?

What do you need to do to fully develop into who God created you to be?

How do you see yourself living up to your potential to be creative, spiritual, intelligent, relational, and moral?

Who in your life do you feel called to pray for throughout Unleashed:Life to realize their dignity?

Look at the picture of yourself as a baby. What dreams do your parents have for you? What dreams does God the Father have for you?
